EASTFACTS

- 150 girls between the ages of 7 and 18 from diverse backgrounds, participating in five individual choirs
- Founded in 2004
- Rehearsals for individual PG choirs are scheduled on Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays.
- Rehearsal home: Presbyterian Church of Chestnut Hill, 8855 Germantown Avenue (PG is a community-based professional girlchoir with no religious affiliation).
- Performances vary from PG's own full concerts to performing select repertoire with some of Philadelphia's most distinguished arts organizations.
- Recent collaborations include the Philadelphia Orchestra, the Philadelphia Singers, Opera Company of Philadelphia, Mendelssohn Club of Philadelphia, Lyric Fest, the Network for New Music, and the Girls Composition Workshop.
- PG repertoire is steeped in the classical tradition, including music from many cultures and time periods.
- PG choirs participate in local and regional choral festivals. The touring choir of PG undertakes a concert tour each year. Past tours include Iceland, the Pacific Northwest, Germany, the Czech Republic, and Italy.
- PG auditions are low-key and fun.
- Tuition for KSB for 2008-2009 season is between $675 and $750; a limited amount of scholarship money is available.
- PG's brother-choir is Keystone State Boychoir. Both choirs are members of Commonwealth Youthchoirs, co-founded by Joseph P. Fitzmartin and Steven M. Fisher.
